

like to announce that the Committee on Suffrage and Election will meet immediately following adjournment in the lounge, for having a picture taken.

DELEGATE JAMES (presiding): Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Also I would like to announce that the Local Government Committee will meet exactly five minutes after the session recesses for supper, and will stay in session I promise no longer than fifteen minutes. The meeting will be in our committee rooms.

I would like everyone to be prompt, if you will, and we will adjourn promptly. Thank you.

DELEGATE JAMES (presiding): The Chair recognizes Delegate Della.

DELEGATE DELLA: Mr. President, do we get a copy of this transitory proposal?

DELEGATE JAMES (presiding): I think it will be made available. It is at the print shop, I understand, and it will be delivered very soon.

DELEGATE DELLA: I notice that the clerks and everybody else have copies.

DELEGATE JAMES (presiding): That is the "advance guard", I guess.

DELEGATE DELLA: Do you have a good reason?

DELEGATE JAMES (presiding): There are only four copies available, but I understand they will be available very shortly. They are being compiled in the print shop.

(President H. Vernon Eney resumed the chair.)

THE PRESIDENT: I have been endeavoring to find out what Delegate Miller's condition was, and Mrs. Miller has been at the hospital rather constantly. She was calling, and I left the rostrum to take the call because it has been very difficult for me to reach her. He is very, very sick. He is in a great deal of pain.

Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: I just wanted to make a committee announcement, if I could.

THE PRESIDENT: You may.

DELEGATE DULANY: There will be a meeting of the committee on Public Information one-half hour before the session tomorrow morning.

THE PRESIDENT: At the moment I think I have to leave you in a little uncertainty as to the time of the session tomorrow morning. I have indicated to Delegate Penniman that I would want to begin the session at ten o'clock. I want to confer with him at the dinner hour to see whether or not by doing so we could slow down the Committee on Style. I do not think so, so I anticipate that we will have a session beginning at ten o'clock in the morning, and certainly we will have a session tomorrow morning, and tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night, and of course we will have a session tonight.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

All delegates present now and not present at roll call earlier today may indicate their presence on supplemental roll call.

The Clerk will record the supplemental roll call.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, notwithstanding the fact that the President announced that there would be no more recesses, I move that we recess until 8 o'clock.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: All those in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 6:30 P.M., the Convention was recessed to reconvene at 8 P.M., the same day.)

PLENARY SESSION

JANUARY 2, 1968—8:00 P.M.

PRESIDENT H. VERNON ENEY,
PRESIDING

THE PRESIDENT: The Convention will please come to order.

Roll call.

(Whereupon, a roll call vote was taken.)

THE PRESIDENT: Has every delegate answered roll call? The Clerk will record Delegate Boileau's being present. Has every delegate answered roll call?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the roll call.
